1972

Amy Zak

Amy
To the nicest
girl in the Jr. Class.
Remember Prom Weekend.
Getting lost going to dinner. You then back and Russig after times you the beach? And all the fun and I have shared and hopefully will Share. How about Fiddler reunion picnic.
Remember the different shops and merchants we visited. But most of all remember the love I brought to you were hisatant. But
And how at first you And always will.
Remember I love you
If you ever need a friend just call.
anytime, anywhere.. You've got a friend

SAGITTA

Presented by

The Class of 1972

Suffield High School Suffield, Connecticut

if you smile at me i will understand cuz that is something everybody everywhere does in the same language

Just face piles and piles of trials with smiles.....

Let us live according to our need and not our greed.
Let us care and share.
Then there will certainly be a heaven on earth.

oh the jealousy, the greed is the unraveling its the unraveling and it undoes all the joy that could be...

I AM HE

AS YOU ARE HE

AS YOU ARE ME

AS WE ARE

ALL TOGETHER

And yet, isolation and loneliness,
greed suspicion, hate are experiences around us — and within us — evil everywhere mingled with the beautiful.

Can we let deep human longing to overcome such evil get inside us too?

as invitation?
like light?
space?
color?
sound?

The needs of others call us to be life-source finding light in the dark in sparks of human goodness alive beneath encrusted surfaces.
Can we so communicate belief in the basic goodness of people That they come to believe in themselves?

Dedication

We dedicate this yearbook to people with the hopes that they will forget their differences and unite so that the spirit of peace and brotherhood shall guide the world.

Miss Victoria

Mr. Sinicrope

Mr. Fisher

Appreciation

One page of thanks can hardly be exchanged for all the assistance and encouragement given the class of '72 by our advisors.

Try it, you'll like it.

Nancy Marquis

Why thank-you.

Marianne F. Gregor

Charlie, it had to be censored.

Marianne Zak

I think I've got everything.

Lindley Howat

No, that's not what I was thinking of.

Laurie R. Conde

What can I say?

Math Department

George D. Greenleaf
Director of Mathematics

Just for you, I wouldn't do it for anyone else, just for you.

Kathryn Pierson

Okay, now what?

Eugene M. Arsenault

Because you're an underclassmen
I'll explain it one more time.

Edward G. Grous

Like the spokes of a wheel.

Carol S. Rollet

Happiness is being a Good Guy.

C. Christopher Hornbostel

It doesn't matter whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game.

Science Department

Paul R. Thomas

Yes, but can you explain it?

Lawrence Green

And at that point I body-checked him into the wall.

Henry T. Walat

Don't bother me now, I'm reading.

Arthur L. Fisher

Alright boys, what do you think you're doing there?

Russell J. Baker

The little ol' wine maker . . . ME!

Richard A. Roy

According to this, there's no substitute for that tube.

Language Department

Robert F. Connelly
Director of Language

I'll drink to that!

Mary Victoria

Well, if you put it that way.

Mary C. Libby

Pilot to co-pilot, pilot to co-pilot.

Sue Zygmunt leaves a crumbed-up typewriter and jammed calculator in B-1.

We're off to see the wizard —
The wonderful Wizard of Oz.

class history

Frosh We stormed in as

As incoming munchkins we whiled away the hours in typical munchkin fashion. We screamed wildly but to no avail as we made idiots out of ourselves at the first Pep Rally. Thousands of car washes made many suds but not many dollars. Often times we drowned our sorrows. Mrs. Smoolca avoided the water. It was evident from our debut that it would be a long road. If we only had a brain.

Soph Further on down the road there were rumors that the square stone and a baboon on the side were supposed to be the class rings. We were tickled blue and white to learn VICTORY was ours with a yellow toilet paper cow. It was better than baboons. We took heart in our tinny existence knowing half the road was behind us.

Junior Mrs. Smoolca flew in from the west to take command. Class cheerleaders threw their chests out in an effort to kick off the candy sale. While breaking sales records obesity and nausea abounded. Skipping merrily down the yellow brick road. The haunted forest scared many a male away (courage). However the Scarborough Fair proved to be a hearty romp for some, especially the Polish munchkins as we polka along the yellow brick road. Rhonda was chosen Queen of the forest. As poppy fields bloomed, the gates of the Emerald City loomed into sight. And there came a new awakening. Courage!

Senior At the onset our interests were stirred by Mr. Sini-crope in efforts to combat our captivity and open the campus. Ears became scarce as hair grew long and the road grew short. Our minds left munchkinland and in shifting priorities, the magazine drive was left behind. Shades of munchkinland resulted in caps and gowns. The Senior Sno-Ball provided good times for those with money. Elsewhere poor people had a ball. There hadn't been as much excitement since the house fell from the sky. All munchkinland was up in arms over the controversy of Student Government, as Council became Association, and then ceased to be.

Looking through the crystal ball a fog set in as many of us were uncertain of what lay ahead. Some reached Oz before others. One thing is certain, all await with anticipation our departure from munchkinland and the final celebration at Emerald City. At last, at the end of the rainbow we can look back and say there's no place like home.

...if you should ask me to give you the reason for life that we know then together we flow like the river and together we melt like the snow...

the days full of living the nights full of wine growing up together staying young to shine

seasons come, seasons go bring forth the rain, the sun and snow
the songs still are sung it was fun to be young
